The News Filled With Patriotism

Irvington, Ky. Mar. 25, 1918. Editor of Breckenridge News: Enclosed find check for one dollar and fifty cents my renewal for the News. Whilst its columns are and not so thrilling as in Bran Whitlocks' story of Belgium now being published in Everybodys Magazine yet I find them of sufficient interest as to make me wish not to miss a copy and its patriotism is so pronounced as to lead old Breckenridge over the top in any and every endeavor which makes for the winning of the war so speed the cause and help bring about peace.

Sincerely, Julia F. Greenwood.
